Learning in the Community

Join Our Lancashire and Lancashire Adult Learning plus guests, for the next in a series of online events to support local community groups and organisations.

On Wednesday 16th September we'll be having a conversation about learning in the community, whether that's joining a fun course running at your local library, to collaborating with a training provider like LAL to deliver a bespoke course for your volunteers or participants.

Usually Lancashire Adult Learning deliver courses in over 120 local venues across the county, but with Covid keeping us all in our homes throughout summer, LAL have taken their Autumn schedule online. Would online learning be an opportunity for your group to keep engaging even when you can't yet fully meet up? Join in the discussion to find out what's involved and hear from other organizations who have delivered courses in the past.

A Zoom link to access the session will be sent to you prior to the meeting start time. Register via Eventbrite; <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/learning-in-the-community-tickets-119236945915>

This session is aimed to support any Lancashire based community group, charity or non-profit organisation.
